With the start of the 1981-82 school year, Clayton High School students witnessed much reorganization yet little change at their school. The coming of a new principal and vice-principal along with several other new faculty members enhanced the flavor of life at CHS without altering its substance. The diversity of students, academic excellence, and commitment to extra-curricular activities that characterize Clayton High School continued to flourish. Moreover, the individual freedom which Clayton affords its students remained an essential ingredient of the CHS atmosphere. Students enjoyed themselves both during their free time and at school-sponsored events.

HOMECOMING

Outstanding student spirit and a wide variety of CHS Club-sponsored activities made Homecoming '81 a memorable one. Many spirited students participated in the bizarre but funny lunchtime games. The Seniors, of course, won the most spirited class award as well as the class float competition. At the game, though, everyone in the stands cheered loudly, including Chauncey, the resident Greyhound.

SPORTS AND SPECTATORS

Without regard for victory or defeat, C.H.S. fans were always an encouraging part of each game. Whether it meant sitting out in the cold rooting the Football Hounds on, or sitting in the sweltering natatorium cheering for the Water Polo Hounds, the fans were always there. The sports season ended victoriously with Tennis sending four members to State and Cross Country sending two members. Water Polo ended triumphantly with a record of 10-4 and went on to compete in Districts. Contributing to the success of the season, Volleyball had an overall record of 13-2, was undefeated in League, and continued on to Districts. Field Hockey broke even with a record of 5-5. The enthusiasm and team unity of the Football Hounds aided the team members in all their tough games. The spirit and encouragement of the fans helped promote many victories at C.H.S.

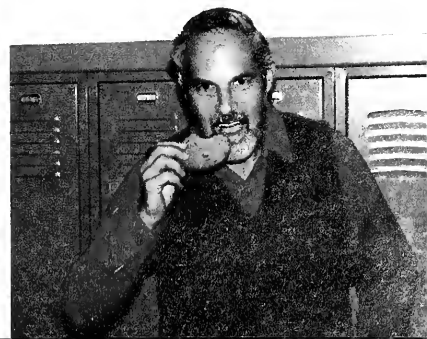

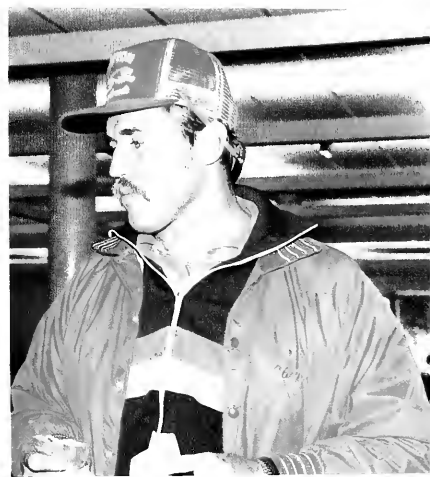

FACULTY

The success of the 1981-82 school year was due, in part, to the talent and involvement of the CHS faculty. Faculty members were frequently seen cheering by the sidelines of various sports. They also expressed their interest and spirit in CHS by participating in the Baby Picture Contest. Mr. Hogan's prize-winning curly hair fooled the most students. A host of new teachers also contributed to a good year. Newcomers in the Math Department were Ms. Nance and Mr. Gower. Ms. Feaman joined an already diverse Foreign Language Office. In all, Ms. Wilson probably summed up the merit of CHS teachers: "This is by far the best faculty in the St. Louis Area."

SENIORS

The Class of 1982 has been one of the most spirited and involved classes in the history of Clayton High. Co-Presidents Scott Dolan and Nicole Brandes, Treasurer Bob Mann, and Secretary Joy Zimmerman led the seniors to easy victory in both the spirit week contest and the float competition. The Seniors also resurrected the Spanish and Chess Clubs and made them into active organizations.

JUNIORS

The Junior class did a superb job in raising money for the upcoming Junior-Senior prom. They performed this task with the leadership of Co-presidents Karen Bollwerk and Liz Comfort, Treasurer Kathleen Marr, and Secretary Toni Waters. The officers organized such activities as car washes, bake sales, and the selling of Junior candy. Furthermore, the Junior class became known for its initiative in starting new clubs such as the French Club. The Junior class noticed the transition from being a sophomore to becoming an upperclassman due to SAT'S and the thought of colleges. In spite of these worries, though, the Junior class remained spirited and involved in all CHS activities.

SOPHOMORES

Although the Sophomore class was confronted with new and more difficult challenges, the Sophomores progressed academically and found little difficulty in adjusting. With the encouragement of President Jeff Karandjeff, Vice President Bob Newmark, Treasurer Aaron DiAntonio, and Secretary Carla Power, they became an even bigger part of school activities including clubs, sports, and fundraisers. As Sophomores, the class of '84 looked forward to becoming upperclassmen.

The class of '85, led by President Dan Feldman, Vice President Becky Gould, Treasurer Jana Zimmerman, and Secretary Sarah McCormick, had no trouble adjusting to the atmosphere of Clayton High. CHS FOOTBALL

Just as a book can't be judged by its cover, a football team can't be judged by its record. The 1981 Clayton Football Greyhounds showed great dedication and improvement, due to the excellent coaching of Larry Frost. Experienced senior captains Jon Kellam, Stan Zaltsman, and Jerry Donini led the hounds in their exciting series of close games. With only seven seniors able to complete the season, the team relied heavily on the play of several underclassmen who rose to the occasion and played well despite a lack of experience. Students, parents, and faculty, dressed in the traditional orange and blue, came out in great numbers to show their support. The opening game against arch-rival Eureka proved to Coach Frost that the team was ready to play tough football. Gradually the Football Hounds improved their game and finished the season on a positive note with a dramatic overtime win against Maplewood. The J.V. and Freshman Greyhounds finished successful seasons with outstanding underclassmen players.

WATER POLO

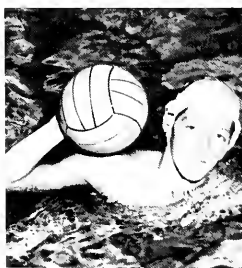

The 1981 water-polo season bore one of the toughest teams in the league. The man who organized water polo in St. Louis, Wally Lundt, with assistant coach Frank Armstrong, provided the coaching that led to a 14-6 record. Varsity co-captains Gilbert Wette and Ray Kerr led their team with spirit, enthusiasm, and strength. The J.V. hounds, led by Wally Brauer and Bill Wolff, ended their season with an amazing record of 12-2.

FIELD HOCKEY

This year's field hockey team had an exciting season with the return of Coach Nance. Part of the field hockey team's success was due to the grueling exercises to the theme song Fame. The "hostile, agile, and mobile" team learned to fight together successfully and ended with a record of 5-5.

Although the Boys' Varsity Basketball team began the season with a lack of unity and consistency, they soon gained the confidence and determination necessary for a winning team. The strength of the Hounds was especially apparent in the victory against Bayless. This victory was due to the evenly balanced scoring between forwards and backcourtters and among several players. The success of the Bas-Basketball team was also the result of the hard work of devoted seniors and juniors. Coach Earl Hopper encouraged the team throughout each intense game and never lost confidence in his team.

The Clayton Girls' Basketball Hounds have ended the season successfully. Besides possessing height and speed, the girls are excellent shooters and passers. Co-Captains Kris Cowles and Angie Kincade are an important force in the impressive Clayton defense, ranked first in the area and second in the state. One notable star, Robin McDowell, scored up to 38 points per game.

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Mike McGraw, showed its talent in its many victories. The team upheld its spirit and continued to fight for success. Wins were due to long practices and persistent determination.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The Freshman Basketball team had an exciting year. Coach Berry led long practices with the team members. Their long workouts and perseverance led them to a successful season.

WRESTLING

Once again the Clayton wrestling team, led by seniors Jerry Donini, Andy Dorman, and John Brugger, had a tough but rewarding season. With the coaching of Larry Frost and Paul Wernsman, the squad had much success against such teams as Burroughs and Maplewood. The success of the Clayton matmen was due, in part, to the underclassmen on the team who showed that youth can definitely be an asset.

BOYS SWIMMING

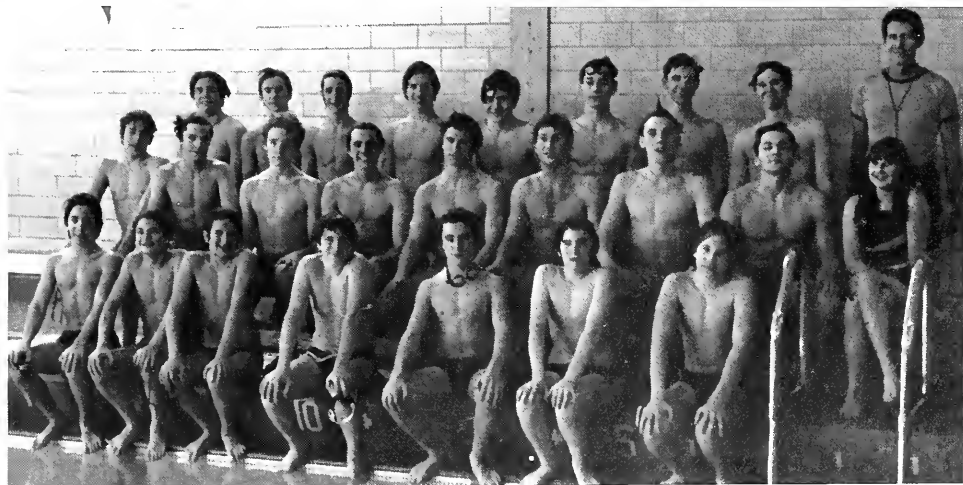

The Waterhounds showed incredible improvement as the season progressed. Their improvement was due to grueling daily workouts and great determination. Promising diver Bill Cole won a first and several second places in various meets, partly due to the supportive mood set by expert announcer Bill Wolff, a soothing voice in that zoo of a Natatorium. The team had much depth, but then, so did the pool.

BASEBALL

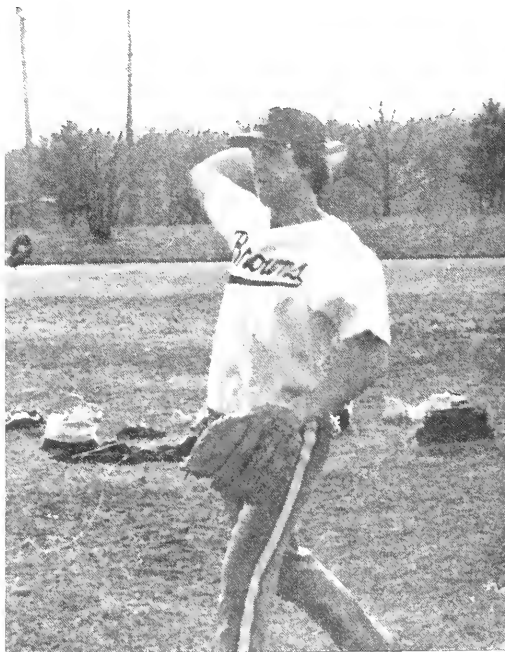

Once again the baseball season opened with a terrific line up. Coach Nick Adzick headed an outstanding team of 11 seniors and 12 underclassmen. The team looked forward to the game against Brentwood at Busch Stadium, which proved to be quite a showdown. This year's pitching staff, headed by Stan Zaltsman and Toby Fuss, proved to be a major contributing factor to the teams numerous victories.

GIRLS' SWIMMING

Neither the chlorine in the pool nor the grueling lap workouts stopped the girls from doing a remarkable job this season. ACTIVITIES

CHS CLUB

Officers Theresa Bollwerk, Lisa Neilson, Kathy Lemon, and Susie Goldman succeeded in involving the students in Homecoming. The decorated halls and the spirit parade raised school spirit. The Peppers Prom was also a great success due to the hard work and motivation of the officers. The theme of the Peppers Prom was Casino Royale starring "Our Royal Flush."

C-CLUB

With sponsor Mr. Earl Hopper, President Todd Taylor, Vice-President Fran Fisher, Secretary Angela Kincade, and Treasurer Lyn Hambley did a remarkable job of organizing school activities. A climax for the C-Club was the successful homecoming prom. C-Club concessions were sold at many sports activities. The C-Club also held the First Annual Pumpkin Carving Contest.

CHEERLEADERS

Give me a "C-L-A-Y-T-O-N!" The CHS cheerleaders-Varsity, JV, and Freshmen, prospered under the direction of their new sponsor, Ms. Peggy Tracy. They provided the backbone of fan support at games of all the sports teams, where their spirit dominated the atmosphere and spurred the Greyhounds on to victory. Fall cheerleaders braved unpredictable weather while winter cheerleaders added to the indoor excitement of basketball games.

SPIRIT WEEK

The hallowed halls of CHS were "haunted" by "spirited" students during the Spirit Week preceding Homecoming. The spirit games and dress-up days planned by the CHS Club were a great success. Hawkeye Pierces, "punks", and masked men were common sights during the week. The lunchtime spirit games such as "Busting Loose" and "Get Shod" certainly proved to be "frightfully" fun. The treat of the week was the Pep Assembly where the sports teams entertained the school with their tricks. The enthusiastic participation created an unforgettable week.

HOMECOMING PROM

This year the student body dressed up for Halloween but skipped trick-or-treating and instead attended the 1981 Haunted Homecoming Prom. Thanks to the C-Club's hard work, the turn-out was great, and everyone had a fantastic time dancing to the band Progress. Once again CHS pulled off a successful Homecoming Prom, reinforcing the positive student and teacher relationship.

CLAMO QUEEN CANDIDATES

The school year wouldn't be complete without the excitement of the junior-Senior prom. A night designated for recognizing those Senior girls who contributed their time, effort, and spirit to Clayton High. Though the competition was tough, the Junior Class Officers narrowed the court to seven candidates. Fund raisers, such as selling junior candy, were undertaken to raise money for a band, room, tuxes, and invitations. The Prom was held on May 1, 1982, at Clayton's Cheshire Inn.

DRAMA GUILD

Led by Amy Travis, Ruth Alpers, and Nick Szabo, the Drama Guild performed a great number of plays. The 1981 Fall Play was one which was widely received by both in school and out of school audiences. The Broadway Show "Bye Bye Birdie" consisted of many debutantes who made successful debuts. Audiences also had the privelage of seeing "Alice In Wonderland" at CHS or at Metro High School. Drama Guild was an attribute to CHS because it gave many talented students the chance to perform.

FALL PLAY

The 1981 Fall play, "All My Sons," written by Arthur Miller, proved to be a great success due to the outstanding efforts of director Carol Jo Lois, starring actors A. DiAntonio, C. Power, A. Alton, and E. Perkins, and many other cast members. The talented technical and set crews helped to create the perfect setting. Because of the co-operation of all involved, the Fall play turned out to be one of the most successful and enjoyable plays produced at CHS.

SPRING PLAY

A new twist was introduced to the 1982 Spring Play. This year's play, Alice in Wonderland, was performed in cooperation with Metro High School of St. Louis. Although this combination posed a few problems with rehearsals, the play was a huge success with the children. Four performances were held, two at Metro and two at Clayton. Amy Travis did a superb job of directing the cast of twenty-five.

SRM

This year's Student Run Musical entitled The Exoteric invaded the Clayton High School auditorium stage on May 14th and 15th. The musical was directed by Ray Kerr and written by Nick Szabo. It featured international intrigue brought on by an alien landing in the United States. Caught up in day to day American life, the alien tries frantically to convey his important message to the oblivious American people. Complete with striking air traffic controllers, patriotic Russians, power hungry Arabs, an unfriendly Willaim F. Buckley and a senile Mortimer Adler, the play sold out both nights. The show consisted of 50-60 characters and two acts. Other important characters included a liberated female police sergeant, an overworked army captain and his dizzy niece, and three dumb detective Charlie's Angel types.

Once again Dr. Charles Wentworth did a superb job of assembling a group of talented students into a well-tuned, timely-functioning orchestra. The Freshmen, with the help of the upperclassmen, greatly increased the depth of the violin sections, and Dr. Wentworth is optimistic about future prospects. The range of composers, from J.S. Bach to Scott Joplin, made the 1981-1982 orchestra season a great success at CHS.

During the 1981-'82 school year, the conscientious staff of the Clamo Newspaper continually produced interesting and informative issues. Editors, heads, and writers did an outstanding job of covering subjects from student government and desegregation to the students' view of final exams to the success of the Girls' Basketball team. The newspaper was an excellent source for students to learn about the activities happening at CHS, in Clayton, and in the St. Louis area. In improving the paper, the staff tried to involve and encourage as many students as possible.

AFS Students: Liz Coscia, Gabby Ferreras, Matthew Chaskalson, Laura Brown, and Andrea Haefley.

Gaby Ferreras is "Super Happy" with her AFS experience. Presently, Gaby lives with the Marr family, but she will return to Argentina next year for college. She occupies most of her time going out with her new sister Kathleen, sleeping over friends' houses, eating at McDonalds, and playing soccer. Gaby loves Clayton High, especially the people and after school sports. The field hockey team was fortunate enough to experience her spirit, enthusiasm, and smiling face.

Andrea Haefley, from Cürich Switzerland, lives at the Comforts. Dispite Missouri, she thinks America is a beautiful country. Andrea enjoys being with friends, learning to play the saxophone, and "munching at White Castle." Andrea likes Clayton High School and spends her free time in the library, the commons, or in the smoking lounge. Thought of as a true individual, Andrea is well liked by Clayton students.

Matthew Chaskalson from Johanesberg, South Africa lives happily at the Rice residents. He enjoys meeting new people, living a new life style, and spending time away from home. Matt is often seen conversing with friends or at the Tivoli Movie Theatre. During a trip to the East Coast, Matt found New York "exciting and full of culture." "Clayton offers challenging academics; especially Mr. Quiring's A.P. Chemistry Class.

Liz Coscia spent a wonderful summer in Cataguases Brazil. Her temporary home was gorgeous and full of opportunities for students. She and her numerous friends participated in a variety of activities such as going to Club Meca, swimming, playing sports, dancing, and hanging out at Praca. Liz experienced true culture shock by attending a small catholic girls' school that she liked but found less challenging than Clayton. Liz loved her AFS experience. "Everything was beautiful; the people and the place."

Laura spent her AFS summer in Banjarmasin, Indonesia where she experienced a new and interesting way of life. The families were home based and the culture was relatively simple. The Indonesian Islands to which Laura traveled were "peaceful and beautiful." In addition to being a learning experience for her, AFS was also "a fun summer experience."

WORLD REPORT

Every year is filled with joys, sorrows and new discoveries and 1982 was no exception. Egyptian President Sadat was assassinated during a military parade. President Reagan had an attempted assassination in which Press Secretary Jim Brady was shot in the head. He recovered less than a year later. Musically, the year was complimented by the outstanding U.S. Tour of the Rolling Stones. Lady Di married Prince Charles and is expecting in late June. Unrest in El Salvador grew while martial law was declared in Poland. John Belushi, Natalie Wood, and Paul Lynde died. The world didn't end as expected. The Guardian Angels spread themselves to St. Louis. The worst plane disaster occurred in Washington D.C. in the Potomac River. Brigadier General James Dozier was kidnapped in Italy and rescued 54 days later. Richard Allen, National Security Advisor, was accused of taking a thousand dollars from the Japanese Government, but was cleared of all charges. In the world of fashion the athletic and western looks were in. "On Golden Pond," "Chariots of Fire," and "Reds" were the top movies. Pac-Man Fever struck the United States with excitement! In Conclusion, the year was good and one that won't be forgotten.

Be ready for a swinging senior year. (Of you make it!
Just kidding.) The summer will be full of partying and sex, so be around. Have a good summer.

Dear Sonnie,
I love having
a locker near you.
It's been great. Thank god we're doing well.
Thanks for getting me
to go on that retreat.
It was fun, when I thought
it would be awful, you better have a good time at Sabra, and don't forget to take a break you need it! You better have an easier schedule next year. Well, love ya,
Lisa Shiffrin

Bonnie,

Well, hmmm... Spanish was pretty fun this year talking about the big
"O" and "them". 4th Hr was okay
even though I was never in the library long enough to do anything
(would you please leave?...) Seeing

Visiting Hours with you was kind of fun (← five "n's" — how did I get to 11th grade?)

I'll miss a lot of people from Clayton (yes — even you — G O O O O D!) and don't worry, I'll keep in touch with everyone!

Too bad we never got to party together,
but maybe sometime when I com back for a vis

Thanks for the shirt — everytime I wear it
I'll imagine those hot summer nights we spent together in bed(?) (G O O O O D!). Well, bye Bon — LOVE always, Andrés (the VP 9/07)

Bonnie,
Thank you so much

Shap
